DELHI

Delhi, makes up one of the cornerstones of the golden triangle in the country's north.

Having its origins in the great Indian epic the Mahabharata as Indraprastha, the capital of the Pandava princes, the city has evolved into a new incarnation. Contemporary Delhi, reflecting the many colours and flavours of India's eclectic composition, is a place where you will be inspired, amazed, fascinated, and impressed at every turn.

AGRA

Agra is a medieval city on the banks of Yamuna River was founded by Sultan Sikandar Lodi in 1556.

It rose to prominence as the Mughal emperors' capital from 1526 to 1658, and it is still a popular tourist destination due to its many magnificent Mughal-era structures, most notably the Taj Mahal, Agra Fort, and Fatehpur Sikri, all of which are UNESCO World Heritage Sites.

JAIPUR

Jaipur also known as the Pink city was founded in 1727 by Maharaja Sawai Jai Sing II

Jaipur was India's first planned city, with beautifully laid out gardens and parks, attractive monuments, and marvellous heritage hotels that were once the residence of Maharajas. The Amber Fort, City Palace, Jantar-Mantar, Hawa Mahal, ambling camels, and cheerful people dressed in multi-colored costumes will make your trip to the pink city unforgettable.
