

How to Fix Error Code 0x80004005 in Windows

Error Code 0x80004005 appears when a corrupt driver is detected in Windows Startup process. This error typically occurs after a new driver is installed and can be fixed by uninstalling and reinstalling the driver. The Microsoft Error Code 0x80004005 appears in Windows, Office, Outlook, and many other places. It is an old error that was encountered in different Operating Systems and applications. when the license activation was not complete, this Error Code 0x80004005 was showing up.

Solutions to Fix Microsoft Error Code 0x80004005

1. Repair Corrupt System files using Third-party Utility/Commands
2. Virtual Box Error 0x80004005 – Change the Registries
3. Change the Registry Value for Local Account Token Filter Policy
4. Fix Shared Drive Access Problem
5. Fix Session Opening on Virtual Machine
6. Remove Microsoft 6to4 Network adapters

<https://www.officelivesupport.com/microsoft-support-error-code-0x80004005/>